

Big Al

Published on Library Services for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (<https://tndeaflibrary.nashville.gov>)

Big Al

The story of Big Al is brought to life with original music, voice and sign language helping all children appreciate the richness of a visual language. Manny Hernandez interprets the story of Big Al, the gnarly fish trying to find his true colors to his fishy friends. There are bonus features including read-along phrases, an activity guide, an interactive quiz, voiceover and ASL vocabulary.

Author: Signs for Intelligence

Imprint: Phoenix, AZ: Signs for Intelligence, c2010

Tags: Children's Book [1]

Signed Stories [2]

Catalog Link: Big Al [3]

Source URL: <https://tndeaflibrary.nashville.gov/library/materials/big-al>

Links:

[1] <https://tndeaflibrary.nashville.gov/material-tags/childrens-book>

[2] <https://tndeaflibrary.nashville.gov/material-tags/signed-stories>

[3] <https://catalog.library.nashville.org/Record/CARL0000433011?searchId=38532394&recordIndex=3&page=1>